Welcome spring! It's time to get outside and enjoy Midway's trails on your bike. Parents, now's a great time to remind your kids about bike and e-bike safety so they can ride responsibly.

The Mayor's Corner

Water conservation is on all of our minds this spring. With a lower than normal snowpack and warmer temperatures, we are facing a season where every drop matters. Protecting our water resources will take a shared effort, and I appreciate the role each of you plays in that.

The Midway Irrigation Company has asked residents to follow their posted watering schedule. You can find the current schedule on the City's website. Sticking to this schedule is one of the most effective ways we can manage our water use and ensure there is enough for everyone throughout the season. I also encourage everyone to be mindful of water use inside the home, where small changes can make a meaningful difference. I appreciate everyone's willingness to be thoughtful about water use. Working together in small, consistent ways will help protect this important resource for our community.

Pardon Our Progress-

River Road and Main St. Traffic Light

Update from UDOT

Crews are currently preparing the intersection for traffic signal installation and road shoulder widening. Over the next month, work will continue to focus on demolition activities in advance of the upcoming reconstruction.

Beginning in May, crews will transition to the project's reconstruction phase, when the most visible roadway improvements will begin.

Motorists should continue to expect one-way traffic operations and intermittent closures at the 400 E and 500 E and Midway Main Street intersections. The intersection at River Road and Main Street will remain closed to the public during this phase of work.

A is for Attitude

At Midway City, attitude matters. We strive for a positive, solution-focused approach in everything we do. For our staff, it's about being patient, respectful and willing to work together. A positive attitude allows us to navigate challenges and build collaborative connections. It's a simple idea, but it makes a big difference in how we show up for Midway every day.
