Section 16.16.23 Duration of Final Approval

- The duration of final approval shall be for one year from the date of final approval of the development by the City Council.
- Should a final plat not be recorded by the County Recorder within the one-year period of time, the development's approval shall be voided, and both preliminary and final approvals must be re-obtained, unless, on a showing of extenuating circumstances, the City Council extends the time limit for plat recording, with or without conditions.

- The granting or denying of any extension, with or without conditions, is within the sole discretion of the City Council, and an applicant has no right to receive such an extension.
